Course Overview

The IACP First-Line Leadership (FLL) program is intended for newly promoted and aspiring sworn and civilian first-line supervisors. The learning experience is focused on three key elements of leadership – the leader, the follower, and the situation. This course is designed to provide attendees with a foundational understanding of proven and actionable leadership strategies, concepts, and skills.

Spanning seven weeks in duration, this course consists of bi-weekly virtual live events led by IACP-certified instructors and at-home assignments to support learning application.
